Abstract:

In this talk, we will prove a classical theorem which states that the simple random walk on the integer lattice $\mathbb{Z}^d$ is recurrent in the case where $d = 1, 2$ and transient in the case where $d \geq 3$. In particular, we plan to focus on the combinatorial nature of the proof.