

*Department of Mathematics,
University of California San Diego*

Applications of Graph Theory

Sam Spiro

UCSD

Applications of Fourier Analysis

Abstract:

In this talk we apply Fourier analysis of Boolean functions to solve problems in social choice theory and property testing. In particular we examine Arrow's impossibility theorem and the BLR test.

Friday, September 20, 2019

2:00 PM

AP&M 5402
