

Title: Advancing mathematical knowledge by connecting topics within mathematics

Abstract: I will describe several disagreements that (may) arise in a mathematics classroom, present both sides of the argument and suggest a possible resolution. The discussion will draw connection between several seemingly unrelated mathematical topics. Further, I will describe how students or prospective teachers can be engaged in addressing similar disagreements.