

Figure III.6: The perpendicular cross sectional area of a beam of light is  $A$ . The area of the surface tilted at an angle  $\theta$  is larger by a factor of  $1 / \cos \theta$ .