Figure VII.13: Two Bézier patches join to form a single smooth surface. The two patches $q_1$ and $q_2$ each have sixteen control points. The four rightmost control points of $q_1$ are the same as the four leftmost control points of $q_2$. The patches are shown forming a $C^1$-continuous surface.