

Figure I.12: Three triangles. The triangles are turned obliquely to the viewer so that the top portions of each triangle is in front of the base portion of another.