

Figure VII.14: Non-uniform subdivision can cause cracking. On the left, two Bézier patches share a common boundary. On the right, after subdivision of the left patch  $\mathbf{q}_1$ , the boundaries no longer match up.