

Figure IV.17: The shaded regions represent sets. The two sets on the left are convex, and the two sets on the right are not convex. The dotted lines show line segments with endpoints in the set which are not entirely contained in the set.