

Figure X.4: The two rays are shown intersecting the bounding planes of the shaded polytope. Front intersections are labeled “ f ” and back intersections are labeled “ b ”. The upper ray hits some back intersections before some front intersections and thus does not intersect the polytope. The lower ray hits all the front intersections before all the back intersections and thus does intersect the polytope.