

Figure VII.6: The convex hull of the control points of the Bézier curves shrinks rapidly during the process of recursive subdivision. The whole curve is inside its convex hull, i.e., inside the quadrilateral $p_0p_1p_2p_3$. After one round of subdivision, the two subcurves are known to be constrained in the two convex shaded regions.