

Figure VII.9: (a) A degree one Bézier curve is just a straight line interpolating the two control points. (b) A degree two Bézier curve has three control points. (c) A degree eight Bézier curve has nine control points. The dotted straight line segments are called the control polygon of the Bézier curve.