

Figure IV.2: The point u in the interior of the triangle is on the line segment from w to z . The point w is a weighted average of x and y . The point u is a weighted average of w and z .