

Figure A.5: The angle between \mathbf{u} and \mathbf{v} equals φ , and is used for computing the cross product. The direction (sign) of the angle is important for the cross product.