

Figure II.16: Reflection across the plane P . The vector \mathbf{u} is the unit vector perpendicular to the plane. A reflection maps a point to its mirror image across the plane. The point \mathbf{x} is mapped to the point \mathbf{y} directly across the plane, and vice-versa. Each “F” is mapped to the mirror image “F”.